RE: Expiration of ML 43181-Clay
DOGM Permit #S/015/074

Gentlefolk:

Article II of the terms and conditions of the above numbered lease stipulate that the lease may not be extended beyond the end of the 20th year except by production of the leased substances in commercial quantities from the leased lands. The end of the 20th year is December 31, 2006, and no such production of the leased substances is evident under the lease. A December 31, 2006 expiration of the lease is therefore anticipated after which time the Lessee will no longer have any rights relevant to the lease.

Please contact me if you have any questions in this matter.

Sincerely,

John T. Blake
Trust Land Specialist
